

Special Education in Ethics

Dear Parent/ caregiver,

Our records indicate that you have chosen not to allow your child to attend any special religious education (SRE) program conducted during special religious education class time.

A special education in ethics (SEE) program is available at the school and is run by authorised volunteers of Primary Ethics, an approved provider of SEE. Additional details of this program can be found at Primary Ethics website or by contacting the school.

Students not attending SRE or SEE will be supervised in a separate physical location and can work independently on homework, reading or private study.

Please advise if you wish to enrol your child in special education in ethics by completing and returning the tear-off form below.

At any time, you have the right to change your SRE or SEE nomination or to withdraw your child from the nominated lessons. A note to the Principal will affect this change.

Regards,
John Quinn
Principal
